DESCRIPTION

Partner with C-Suite-level leaders to help them achieve personal and professional transformation.

The Executive & Leadership Coaching Certificate (ELCC) Program is an advanced TFC program for CAPP-trained, ICF-credentialed coaches who want to amplify their coaching skills and partner with C-Suite-level leaders to help them achieve personal and professional transformation.

ELCC will challenge you to double down on your knowledge as a positive psychology-based coach to prepare you to deliver a full-spectrum coaching engagement at the highest levels of leadership.

- You'll learn new ways to enhance the key foundational strengths you currently use to successfully coach clients.
- You'll develop insight into the unique needs of people in leadership and hone your coaching style to address those needs.
- You'll learn techniques for building trust and deepening relationships to authentically position yourself as a partner.
- And you'll master the positive psychology-based practices that allow you to unlock a leader's ability to flourish and help cascade flourishing throughout their organizations.

ELCC is a rigorous 9-month learning experience that combines intensive study, hands-on training, dedicated peer support, and real-world application. ELCC faculty Patricia Omoqui, CAPP, PCC, and Sr. Executive Coach, and Emiliya Zhivotovskaya, MAPP, MCC, and TFC CEO and Founder, curate an approach to the program that reflects their extensive professional experience and responds to the global business, cultural, social, technology, and economic trends impacting leaders today.

Personal and Professional Outcomes

As an ELCC graduate, you will be trained to:

- Deliver an unparalleled executive coaching engagement from start to finish.
- Use best-in-class positive psychology-focused leadership approaches to unlock maximum potential.
- Identify effective methods for gaining access to organizations and understanding the organizational structure.
- Build trust to deepen relationships and authentically position yourself as a partner.
- Design and sell your executive coaching services to individuals and organizations.

Tools and Resources

Access to a wide variety of tools and resources is available through your personal ELCC dashboard and includes:

- Weekly live instruction, support, and feedback from faculty
- Proven approaches and strategies to the executive coaching process

TESTIMONIALS

“The Flourishing Center really wants its graduates to have the necessary tools to go into the world and make it a better place. I loved the atmosphere of trust and psychological safety, the camaraderie, the humor. I'm sure most in our cohort will stay in touch and collaborate or at least support each other from afar—we're all meeting soon to decide how to keep the magic going.”

– LAURENT

“It has been the best decision I have made in a long time for my professional career and also my personal life.”

– SHARI

“Positive Psychology has allowed me to both enrich my career and personal life and bring it to the next level. Emiliya's dynamic methods and knowledge is reflected throughout each module and exercise. I urge anyone considering taking this course to do so—it will definitely enhance your life in ways you never imagined..”
